To energise the spirit of running with the 21st edition of Mawana Sugar Indian Open Marathon 2010, designer Anjana Bhargav and Mawana Sugar held a party in the capital recently. And Anjana even designed a special cap for the marathon runners that was unveiled at the party.

Anjana, who played a perfect host received every guest herself, said nothing but designing is keeping her busy these days. "I was very excited to design the cap," she says.

Spotted at the party were many people from the capital's social circuit. Dancer Shovana Narayan and Sushma Seth, who reached the event dot on time unlike many others, were seen together for a long time, talking about their life and more. Seth was excited to talk about her play Bikhre Bimb that was staged recently. "I did a play after 30 years," she said, adding that these days she is busy with social work.
